

Red Deer Car Accident Lawyers

Red Deer Car Accident Lawyers - We have among the biggest and really experienced class action defense groups in the country. We have experienced in various law areas involving competition, employment, environment issues, product liability, pension, securities and professional liability.

Our firm's lawyers are completely capable at coming to a early settlement making use of our strong negotiating skills or defending our clients in a trial. Our aim is to create a correct plan intended for you, one which is efficient and cost effective. Because our counsel includes lawyers from several jurisdictions, we are able to offer our clients experienced, valuable suggestion and a national approach when defending multi-provincial class actions. With regards to dealing with cross-border litigation, we likewise utilize our "one team" approach. We have worked closely with external and internal U.S. defense counsel to be able to create a worldwide defense strategy.

In order to guarantee that all our clients requirements are best represented, we use a multidisciplinary method to enable us to draw upon the information offered by teams in competition, banking, corporate and commercial, intellectual property, labour and employment, securities and pension.