

Patent Lawyers Red Deer

Patent Lawyers Red Deer - Our firm's Intellectual Property team is recognized for excellence and innovation in the full range of services relating to enforcement, acquisition and commercialization of intellectual property assets.

Over ninety experts make up our team, with extensive skill in the three service lines: Litigation, Business and Prosecution. Our intellectual property practice is ranked amongst the very best within the country. Our intellectual property team has skill in the areas of designs, trade-marks, patents, trade secrets and copyrights. Our litigators are amongst the very best in the planet.

Our teams knowledge extends into the areas of due diligence, portfolio analysis, audits as well as several connected services which are part of financing and corporate transactions. We are professionals in the assessment of technology for intellectual property protection, comprising methods for portfolio development involving procurement of rights, licensing and commercialization strategies, and offensive and defensive litigation.

Our team comprises patents and trade-mark agents, technical consultants and intellectual property lawyers. We have practical experience and strong backgrounds in engineering and scientific sectors. In science the team has expertise in biochemistry, biotechnology, biomechanics, chemistry, endocrinology, food science, genetics, immunology, life sciences, pharmacology, microbiology, molecular/cellular biology, physics, physiology, neuropsychology, neurophysiology, organic chemistry, and toxicology. In engineering disciplines, team members excel in the subsequent fields: biomedical, chemical, aerospace, computer science, industrial, civil, electrical, mechanical, material science and metallurgy.