

Criminal Law Firms Red Deer

Criminal Law Firms Red Deer - It is clearly vital that every one of our clients maintain their intellectual property and their rights behind it. Our aim is to quickly and efficiently handle the misappropriation and misuse of the intellectual property which belongs to our clients. We provide guidance in circumstances handling the leak of trade secrets, confidential information, registered designs, copyright, trademarks and patents. In addition, we even deal with the personality rights, anti-piracy problems, defamation and commercial disputes using litigation.

Our firm and lawyers are particularly well-versed in patent matters, particularly within the areas of mechanical, pharmaceutical and telecommunication sectors. The various copyright violations from world wide web use, consisting of software, music, artwork, and television rights which we will work through fast to be able to help you prevent more exploitation. Trademark and competition matters are usually handled utilizing litigation.

Using our skills of our well-seasoned litigation lawyers together with our firm's knowledge concerning intellectual property makes for a formidable combination. Our clients can rely on us to act for them at all levels of the Canadian courts along with international tribunals.

With our many knowledgeable litigators; we have as well numerous patent and trademark agents, who work together with property litigators. We also have some experience in technology transactions. This makes sure we have an extra set of skills that is useful should a case get settled prior to going to trial. The help which we offer our clients is time-efficient, creative, and most importantly, effective.

Litigation is often not the only means to attain our clients' goals. If there is an alternative way that is more cost effective and efficient then we pick that road. The main goal is to achieve our clients' goals as painlessly and quickly as possible.