

Business Lawyer Red Deer

Business Lawyer Red Deer - Some of our client comprise financial institutions, financing and leasing companies, as well as other non-bank lenders. We normally help them to document and structure various loan transactions. Loan transactions might include term loans, lines of credit, revolving credit facilities, asset-based loans, subordinated financings, lease financings, real estate development financings and motion picture financings.

The business clients come to depend on our assistance in helping them to arrange, negotiate, and obtaining credit facilities.

Our lawyers are very familiar with public sector financing and with assistance programs and structures. They have vast knowledge with industrial revenue bond issuances, industrial development transactions, state and local development agency programs and financings.

Our lawyers help lenders and borrowers with work-outs and loan restructurings.
