If you have been hurt caused by a medical mistake, you can be entitled to damages. Errors made by physicians, nurses, or various health care practitioners, that lead to injury, can entitle you to compensation for "general damages," likewise known as pain and suffering. If you go through loss of income and ability to earn income due to your injuries, you can be entitled to compensation. Other kinds of compensation comprise home maintenance and housekeeping expenses, and health care expenses not included in your medical insurance.

Slip and Fall

You could be entitled to compensation if you experience harm in a slip and fall incident. Depending upon the circumstances of your fall, your entitlement to compensation can consist of loss of ability to earn income and loss of income, "general damages," housekeeping and home maintenance costs, and health care costs over and above those included in your medical insurance. If the person causing the injury has an insurance policy which can be accessed on your behalf, it is essential that legal assistance is sought early to prevent limitation period issues.

There are several types of injury that can happen as a result of other's carelessness, like assault, wrongful death, and injury sustained on premises owned by others. The losses which victims experience could effect their lives and deserve compensation.
