

Red Deer Personal Injury

Red Deer Personal Injury - Personal injuries can cause a period that may be confusing and overwhelming. Your personal life might get overturned emotionally, financially and physically. We have trusted and experienced advisors you can always count on. Our senior law clerk and personal injury lawyer have the specialized legal skill to be able to provide you with professional recommendation and representation. We can help you to know the legislation as it applies to your case, and we would take the time to discuss all of your alternatives. We would be available from start to finish of the personal injury legal procedure.

We provide free of charge, your initial consultation with an experienced personal injury lawyer. You may have to pay an initial retainer fee, if we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis. If we are unable to get compensation for you, you will pay nothing in legal fees. We would receive a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in obtaining compensation. We will ensure that you understand all the details of the retainer agreement previous to signing.

You should phone us as soon as possible following your injury so as to prevent your rights from expiring. The specific time periods within which you need to bring your claim could differ from a few days to two years.

Our extensive knowledge extends into the following fields of personal injury: motor vehicle accidents; dog bites and animal attacks; pension plan appeals, slip and fall injuries and long-term disability claims.

Nearly all personal injury cases are effectively settled without going to trial. Our objective is to be able to give effective negotiation and prevent costly court proceedings. Then again, we have skilled litigators who will represent you before the court if it becomes necessary.
