

Criminal Lawyer Red Deer

Criminal Lawyer Red Deer - Our criminal defense lawyers are experienced, knowledgeable and have represented many clients in all levels of court. Amongst the areas wherein our lawyers have extensive expertise and skill in are bail hearings, preliminary hearings, trials and appeals from conviction to sentencing. Both individual and corporate clients have the right to be represented in all problems of quasi-criminal proceedings. Among the cases that are started by both provincial and federal administrative and regulatory agencies which we have dealt with in the past include tax, bankruptcy, wildlife and environmental offenses, and health or safety violations. Additionally, our office also acts as counsel in professional disciplinary procedures.