

Civil Litigation Lawyers Red Deer

Civil Litigation Lawyers Red Deer - Provided within the Competition Act, consists areas such as refusal to deal, price maintenance, mergers and acquisitions, competitor agreements, abuse of dominant position, tied selling, and several anti-competitive trade practices. The practices of bid rigging, conspiracies, and deceptive marketing practices are forbidden.

Our company has extensive knowledge regarding commercial clients as well as inquires by the Commissioner of Competition under the Act. This involves appearing before both the Competition Tribunal and the Federal Court. We negotiate proposed mergers and acquisitions with the Competition Bureau on behalf of our clients and have also been a part of various lawsuits regarding anti-competitive practice allegations. Our company has the experience and expertise needed to ensure our clients have up-to-date information regarding compliance problems.