

Family Law Firms Red Deer

Family Law Firms Red Deer - Divorce and child custody disputes can be confusing and emotional times. Even marriage can be confusing and stressful. The law is meant to protect you, but for individuals who are experiencing major changes in their lives, there can be feelings of fear and vulnerability.

Our Family Law practitioners provide sound legal suggestion based on our extensive knowledge assisting individuals in your situation. We can help you to understand what lies ahead and what actions should be done.

We assist our clients to prepare marriage contracts, cohabitation agreements and separation agreements. We help with areas of pension or property division and spousal or child support. We are available when you need a divorce, a restraining order, child custody and access assistance, a change of name or paternity help.

Our Family Law lawyers work with the several estate planning and business law experts within our company to be able to help you get the results you deserve. In the many cases that need specialized knowledge, our lawyers have the right knowledge and expertise to help you throughout your difficult matters.

The goal of our office is to be able to assist you obtain a fair, timely resolution through skilled negotiation. We even have a well seasoned Trial Counsel to represent you before the courts, in cases where negotiation is unsuccessful.