

Estate Lawyer Red Deer

Estate Lawyer Red Deer - Our Wills and Estates group can assist families and clients with all aspects of wealth preservation.

We help with all matters or issues which may arise in respect of wills or the administration of estates. Our services comprise, guidance and counsel in estate planning, the formation of trusts, establishment of, charitable bequests, preparation of wills, and several necessary deeds or instruments connected to personal estates.

We also offer advice and opinions to individuals or trust companies on the administration of estates. We advise estate beneficiaries about protection of all their legal rights, and we clarify the obligations and duties of executors and trustees.
