

Divorce Lawyer Red Deer

Divorce Lawyer Red Deer - When dealing with divorce or separation, it is extremely easy to get overwhelmed. The division of property and potential child/spousal support and access together with the emotional stress and burden could make it a very traumatic event. Since the decisions made through this particular time could have an effect on the rest of your life, it is wise to have a neutral party present who can make certain you are given as much information as possible about the consequences of your decisions.

There are various ways so as to resolve family issues, consisting of negotiation, collaborative family law, the Court process and mediation.

Here at our firm, we believe that whichever matrimonial problems should be resolved outside the courtroom, which saves money and might be the best method for you. A written, fair agreement can be reached by our skilled lawyers through negotiation.

If for any reason you cannot prevent going to court, we can help provide you with experienced and knowledgeable representation.

In "Collaborative Family Law", both spouses are responsible for hiring a lawyer skilled in collaborative law. Each of the parties along with their lawyers first agree to not go to court and attempt to settle the problems through negotiation. Nearly all of the work is spent with both parties and their lawyers present and negotiating between themselves.

Registered Psychologists or Clinical Counselors can be involved in the proceedings, depending on the requirements of the family. Should the situation need it, we likewise encourage using a child specialist to assist arrange a parenting plan in addition to helping with any issues concerning the children's mental well being.

Collaborative family law, when undergoing divorce, that enables the parties to come to their own resolutions. We offer professionals to be able to help ensure that the separation goes as smooth as possible, as well as to be able to assist deal with the extreme emotional feelings experienced throughout the process.