

Tax Lawyer Red Deer

Tax Lawyer Red Deer - Taxation takes up a major portion of our Office. Our lawyers are experienced veterans in the areas of corporate, personal, international and estate tax planning. This consists of, but is not limited to, limiting and assessing the damage caused by mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, commercial transactions, and private and public financings.

One of the services which our company provides is the negotiation, preparation and negotiation that is involved to apply for advance tax rulings. Our lawyers are there for each and every step of the tax appeal process, from the filing and preparation of the notice of objection all the way to the subsequent trials and/or appeals. Clients can be assured that they would be fully represented in all aspects of transactions conducted with the tax authorities.
