

Divorce in Red Deer

Divorce in Red Deer - Our company has one of the largest municipal and planning law departments within the country. Our department's specialized planners and lawyers practice exclusively in matters relating to development law, land use planning and municipal law.

We assist, advice and represent numerous landowners, developers, public interest groups and financial institutions. In matters related to municipal law, we represent municipalities in municipal finance and restructuring deals, and we assist with by-law drafting and negotiating various kinds of agreements.

We act on behalf of our clients before the courts, different land-use tribunals, local and regional councils, land division committees and committees of adjustment.
