

Legal Aid Red Deer

Legal Aid Red Deer - When handling a corporate transaction the ultimate goal is to generate minimum risk while maximizing profit. The tax system is unreasonably complicated in that there are various rules which regulate both domestic and foreign companies. Our practice offers sound recommendation concerning tax planning and aids in the resolution of tax controversies. We try to ensure that all transactions run quickly and tax-efficiently.

To help our clients in the problems of divestitures, acquisitions, and the negotiation and structuring of mergers, we bring in our lawyers from the beginning. This ensures that each undertaking is tax efficient so that our clients may maximize their profit.

Our lawyers are experienced in transactions about resources, communications, power, transportation, technology, real estate, manufacturing and financial services. What's more, we also advise pension funds, sovereign wealth funds and private equity investors. We have likewise converted several income trusts and royalty funds to corporate form.

Our lawyers within our firm are well-versed in all aspects of tax law comprising anti dumping, sales tax, and various commodity and trade taxes. Manufactured goods transactions or financial services which are being done across borders will usually require some expertise in the field of commodity taxation. Our company has the knowledge and experience to help our clients accomplish their tax goals.

One of the major sectors of our practice is involved with obtaining advance income tax rulings. Normally, we are asked to advise concerning both federal and provincial tax legislation, and to give our opinions concerning dealing with tax audits. What's more, businesses call upon us to advise them concerning stock options and various equity compensation arrangements.
