

Law Firms in Red Deer

Law Firms in Red Deer - The objective of Our Tax Group is to be able to protect our clients' assets through structuring of business transactions, domestic and international tax planning, and litigating tax disagreements. Our lawyers are highly regarded on an international and national basis for their innovations in domestic and international tax planning. We are recognized for the innovative use of trusts, corporations, partnerships, joint ventures and other vehicles. Our Tax Group is frequently called upon by different law offices and accounting offices seeking our specialized expertise for their clients.

We advise clients regarding the tax-advantages of all types of transactions. Our tax lawyers work directly together with our company's corporate/Commercial and Corporate Finance Teams so as to produce the most positive tax consequences possible in business strategies, arrangements and transactions.

We make use of the several taxation agencies which we have built superb relations in order to enable us to successfully represent clients in areas of promoting legislative change, needing advance tax rulings, and negotiating and disputing the settlement of tax reassessments. In conditions where tax disagreements can't be settled, our Tax Group litigators act on behalf of clients before all levels of the courts.
