What Is Estate Planning?

Estate planning is the method of planning your assets and the various types of asset ownership for your family, other people, and occasionally charitable organizations. Estate planning is an important step in managing your future in case you ever become unable to care for your needs.

Wills

Wills are an essential component of estate planning. We prepare wills at different levels of complexity.

Estate Administration

We offer services regarding wills variation and estate litigation issues and help with probate of will and administration of estates.

Family Trusts

We take care of the management and implementation of family trusts as a part of tax and wealth preservation planning.

Representation Agreements

We assist in legal and financial issues and future personal and health care problems, including the preparation of representation agreements.

Committees/Adult Guardianship

We prepare your nomination of committee for your future health care needs and your application of appointment as committee.

Power Of Attorney

We offer preparation of enduring and specific powers of attorney.

Charitable Giving

We advise clients regarding charitable giving. We help you understand the tax benefits and structure of donations to charities.

Corporate Reorganization

We help with the implementation of corporate reorganizations in regards to how they could affect the planning of the estate.
