

Estate Lawyers Red Deer

Estate Lawyers Red Deer - Estate litigation usually takes place immediately after someone you love becomes incapacitated or passes away. There are lots of emotions, and both family and interpersonal conflicts that likewise happen making the burden of making important choices practically unbearable. Our firm has different types of services which could guarantee that all estate issues are taken care of quickly and efficiently.

We provide assistance to personal representatives, beneficiaries and executors about challenges to wills, trusts and powers of attorney. This consists of trusteeship and guardianship disputes, undue influence and will interpretation, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Moreover, trusts, charitable institutions and trustees could rely on our firm for helpful advice.

In the case when the estate or a dependent adult are involved, stressful and difficult situations can take place. We will ensure that our clients get straight-forward and effective recommendations. Our resolutions are achieved through mediation, arbitration or litigation.