

Red Deer Legal Aid

Red Deer Legal Aid - Our firm specializes in Education and Public Law, representing and advising lots of school boards and educator organizations regarding the many legal problems affecting them.

Among the legal help we offer in education law and public law are employment and labour relationships, contract negotiations, commercial, general and civil litigation, special education, human rights, appeals and judicial review, administrative law, freedom of information and privacy law, conflict of interest law, health law and constitutional law. We likewise advise and act on behalf of educator clients in aspects of corporate-commercial, like municipal law, real estate law and construction law.

We provide comprehensive, effective and timely services in order to help educators handle the difficult problems facing them.

Our clients include Catholic and public school boards, Ministries of Education, boards and agencies and governmental commissions. Our Education and Public Law practitioners work closely together with experts in our Real Estate group and Business Law Group.

Our company and our lawyers are usually called upon to make presentations at national conferences and in-service seminars. They regularly publish articles regarding education and public law in magazines and journals.