

Best Family Lawyer Red Deer

Best Family Lawyer Red Deer - If there is a loss of inheritance which is caused by the victimization of an elderly, vulnerable individual, our office can be of assistance. Because of their heavy dependence on other individuals, the elderly are more susceptible to being fooled into changing their wills, making gifts, or marrying caregivers. If this takes place, our office can help dispute the changes made to the will.

Within situations where a family member can no longer comprehend how to maintain their health or manage their accounts, we assist the family get the powers of attorney through court.

If somebody becomes unable, we follow the laws and procedures under The Substitute Decisions Act. We apply to court to allow the appointment of our client as statutory guardian of the indisposed individual. Next, the elderly person has the comfort of knowing that their property, personal care and finances are being taken care of by the chosen member of the family.