

Red Deer Employment Lawyer

Red Deer Employment Lawyer - Our company specializes in Labour and Employment Law, working in order to represent and advise clients in both the public and private sectors before administrative tribunals, and before all levels of the courts in issues of labour litigation. We help our clients in the negotiation and drafting of collective agreements and participate in the drafting of employment agreements.

Our lawyers are experienced in employment law and regulations with reference to employment benefits and rights, wrongful dismissal, sexual harassment, human rights, accommodation of disabilities and health and safety standards. Our group members assist clients during the labour dispute resolution procedure, participating in mediation, conciliation, negotiation and arbitration.
